MUST REPAY THE MONEY

Sellers Is To Join The Army Soon, Court Is Told

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 23—Frank W. Sellers, Newtown bank clerk, was given a suspended sentence at a session of the Bucks County Criminal Court. John H. Anderson, Trenton, proprietor of a meat market in Newtown, was sentenced to serve from nine months to three years in the Bucks County prison and directed to pay back to the Newtown Title and Trust Co., the $5,070.92 embezzled. Both were indicted on an embezzlement charge.

Sellers is soon to join the army, it was stated.

The defendants, Frank W. Sellers, 22, a former clerk in the Newtown Title and Trust Co., and John H. Anderson, of Trenton, manager of the Quality Meat Market at Newtown, entered a plea of guilty to charges of embezzlement and conspiracy involving a shortage of $5,070.92.

District Attorney Edward G. Biester read Sellers' statement to the court, explaining how he carried on "an over-draft scheme" in which Sellers and Anderson worked together for the benefit of the meat market manager.

The scheme worked by Sellers and Anderson was carried on over a period of about one year, starting with a small amount at first, and then piling up until it reached over $5,000.

William Morlok, Jr., vice president and treasurer of the bank, was the first witness called. Morlok testified that so far as he knew, Sellers in no

SOLEBURY SCHOOLS LEAD IN ART AND MUSIC

Rank Among Best In Bucks County, Says Charles H. Boehm, County Sup't.

SPEAKS, FARMERS CLUB

NEW HOPE, Sept. 25—That the schools in Solebury Township rank among the best in the county in subjects of art and music is the belief of Superintendent of Bucks County Schools Charles H. Boehm.

Mr. Boehm so informed members of Solebury Farmers Club at a meeting in Phillips Mill, here, recently.

Speaking before approximately 80 persons, Mr. Boehm took as his subject "An overview of the modifications that are being made in the program of the Bucks county schools." He stated that there are but five districts in the county that have more assessments per pupil in school than Solebury, and this makes this particular district one of the outstanding in the county.

The county office, said Mr. Boehm, expects every school in the county to co-operate in the salvage campaign and in the sale of war stamps and bonds.

THE GREAT GAME OF POLITICS

By FRANK R. KENT
(Distributed by McNaught Syndicate, Inc.)

Too Big To Control?

Washington, Sept. 24. WHEN Mr. Elmer Davis, supported by the War Department, recently told a Congressional Committee that the attitude of James C. Petrillo, arrogant boss of the musicians' union, was damaging the morale of United States troops and threatening the existence of small radio stations vital to the war effort, the question was again raised as to whether in this country union labor leaders are beyond Government control.

THIS, of course, is an old question. Many citizens asked themselves that during the long months when, with the Government urging speed in war production, millions of priceless man days were lost through unjustifiable strikes. They asked it during such incidents as the one where two labor leaders deliberately scuttled the President's National Mediation Board because it rendered a decision not to their taste. They asked it when they found that, notwithstanding strong public sentiment favoring legislation to prohibit strikes during the war, the labor lobby was powerful enough to prevent Congress from acting.

THEY asked it when, more than a year ago, they found all the rubber-stamp Administration officials supporting the President by insistence that wage regulation was not essential to price control—a position which they have since reversed one hundred per cent. It was asked again when it was announced that the President would name a "labor czar" to stabilize wages, and then failed to do it. And since last April, when he declared that wages must be stabilized, and our standard of living lowered during the war, it has been asked every time his War Labor Board has sanctioned new wage demands and made new labor concessions.

YOU CAN WIN $10 IN WAR STAMPS ABSOLUTELY FREE

HELP BRISTOL REACH ITS SCRAP GOAL AND HELP YOUR COUNTRY WIN THE WAR IT'S EASY! IT'S FUN! HERE'S HOW!

To be in line for this $10 PRIZE all you need do is make up a list of all the scrap metal objects you can think of. You do not have to contribute any scrap to enter this contest. Just write down names of scrap metal articles that would help the government's scrap metal campaign, and submit the list, with your name and address, to Scrap Salvage Contest Committee, c/o Bristol Courier, before midnight, Monday, September 28, 1942.

A prize of $5 in war stamps will be awarded to the individual submitting the second largest list.

No individual can win both prizes.

This contest is being conducted to answer a question that's on the lips of hundreds of Bristolites:

The question: "WHAT IS SCRAP?"

The answer: "ANYTHING THAT'S MADE OF IRON, STEEL, BRASS, COPPER OR ALUMINUM IS VALUABLE SCRAP METAL FOR THIS CURRENT SCRAP CAMPAIGN."

The war effort needs all the scrap you can give in order to keep the steel mills open. And here's why. Half the metal that goes into the making of guns, boats, jeeps, trucks, tanks and the dozens of other heavy metal necessities, is scrap metal. It has to be that way. No other method of manufacture is known. So if you hold back your metal scrap you're holding up the production of vital armaments that may save the lives of the very men of your family on far flung battlefields.

Remember—you may know what scrap metal is and can name dozens of items that should be turned in for scrap. But your neighbor may not know as much about scrap metal and its importance as you do. So sit down now and make up the longest list you can think of. The items you put down may tap a brand new source of metal junk. It's your patriotic duty—and it's fun!

Read the list printed below. Add scrap metal items to it. And if you submit the longest list of scrap metal items between now and midnight Monday you will win $10 worth of war stamps; or if you submit the second longest list, you will win $5.

Here's the list. Build it up! Get ready—set—go!

- A—Anvils, axles, axes, andirons
- B—Beds, bathtubs, basins, buckets
- C—Chisels, clocks, coal-stoves
- D—Daggers, drip-pans, dynamos
- E—Egg-beaters, elevators
- F—Furnaces, flatirons, fences

REPORT NO VIOLATIONS

Bristol's part in the surprise blackout last night went off to perfection. The red signal came through at 10:15 and the all-clear at 10:30. As in several of the previous blackouts a full moon was shining at the time that the alarm came through, but then later even the moon joined in the spirit of the thing and for a time hid beneath the clouds.

The various whistles were plainly heard and no complaints were received at headquarters.

Jews Tonight Begin

The Festival of Sukos

The Jewish festival of Sukos, the Feast of Tabernacles, begins this evening. It is a joyous thanksgiving festival, observed for eight days by Reform Jews and for nine by Conservative and Orthodox Jews.

Sukos is the most joyous of Jewish festivals. It is celebrated in an atmosphere of praise and thanksgiving to God for His goodness to men. Autumn fruits and foliage are found in synagogue and home.

Originally a harvest festival, Sukos has become a celebration stressing the spiritual fruits of life.

During Temple days, it was one of the three pilgrimage festivals, when the people came from everywhere to the city of Jerusalem to thank God for a bountiful harvest, vouchsafed under His benign providence.

Sukos is also called the Festival of Booths, a reminder of the wanderings of the Israelites in the wilderness for forty years until they reached the Promised Land. In booths they dwelt as they wandered from Egypt to Canaan. Today, observant Jews still build a suko or small booth in the synagogue or home, decorate it with leaves and twigs, fruits and foliage of the fall season and spend some time each day therein. This dwelling in booths has taken on the richer meaning of the equality of all men, for the poor and the rich alike inhabit the same frail structure.

The synagogue also is gaily decorated with fruits and flowers, the palm branch, the citron, sprigs of fragrant myrtle, and boughs of the willow tree.

In Reform synagogues there is a ceremony of consecration in which young children are formally initiated into the Religious School.

Sukos concludes with the "Rejoicing of the Law," a celebration in honor of the completion of the annual cycle of Scripture reading from the Torah, the scroll of the Pentateuch, and the Prophets.

Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Lapergola, Mansion street, celebrated their first wedding anniversary on Tuesday evening. A social time was followed by refreshments. The table was decorated with a bouquet of cut flowers. Twelve guests from Bristol attended. Mr. and Mrs. Lapergola received many gifts.

CIRCLE TO MEET

The Hope Circle of Zion Lutheran Church will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. Frank Weik, Swain street.

BRISTOL TWP. SCHOOL BOARD AGREES TO REOPEN NEWPORTVILLE SCHOOL PROVIDED THAT PROPER TEACHERS CAN BE SECURED

At Special Session with Committee of Protesting Residents Also Ask That Committee Show That Reopening of Building is The Wish of Majority From Community Affected

Meeting in special session last evening, members of the board of directors of Bristol Township Public Schools, passed a motion to reopen Newportville school provided proper teachers can be secured, and provided the committee of residents of that community desiring the school reopened show through a petition that reopening of said school is the wish of the majority from the community affected.

The board members informed the committee of residents that the closing of Newportville school was but a temporary affair, the minutes of a recent meeting so stating. The board said the main problem is that of securing sufficient teachers for the township schools, with so many relinquishing their positions, some shortly before school opened, and some since that date.

EMERGENCY POLICE TO MEET

Sunday afternoon at 1:30 there will be a meeting of all Bristol emergency police and all district chiefs of Bristol in the Municipal Building. The meeting is being held to discuss plans for getting out the scrap in the big salvage drive which opens in Bristol Monday.

Board members present were President William D. Knight, Clarence H. Young, Harry C. Barth, E. Leslie Helwig, and Mrs. M. P. Dayhoff. The committee named at a recent protest meeting by residents of Newportville area included: Mrs. Joseph Campbell, Mrs. John Lowris, Mrs. Elbert McQuaid, Mrs. Charles Everitt, Elwyn Smith, Mr. Baker. Also in attendance were three other residents of Newportville section; and Andrew Jackson, principal of the township schools.

The first question asked by the committee spokesman, Mr. Smith, was just why the school had been closed; the board president informing that it was due to shortage of teachers in the township, six having been hired during the summer, and five giving up their positions. The board informed that it had held two teachers for 10 days before giving release, but felt matters would not be helped by holding them longer against their will. "We had no more applications after that and the county superintendent's office could not help us." The committee members mentioned some certain applications received by the board, which individuals were not accepted. Directors replied that they had the privilege and

One Man's Opinion

By Walter Kiernan
(I. N. S. Staff Writer)

The FBI has run its most sensational investigation to a successful conclusion and we can all breathe easy again.

Hot on the trail of spies, saboteurs, enemy aliens and dangerous citizens, the FBI has peered into bridge tees, lodge rooms and meetings of the Sons and Daughters of the Mystic Sign.

Now the report is in... there are no "Eleanor Clubs."

There is a "Hello Flo—Whatdyee Know Club" in New York and an "Hi Joe—When Dya Go Club" in Chicago but no "Eleanor Club."

There is an organization of six foot girls named Mable in West Teapuc, Iowa, and a sorority of stenographers who have changed their names from Anna May to Annamie. That's in Kitchen Forks, Virginia. Neither is regarded as subversive.

Starched Collar, Indiana, has a "Nora Club." This was carefully investigated as Eleanor can be shortened to Nora as FBI agents so well know. In this case all the members proved that their proper name was Evelyn.

Thought for the day: Now let's investigate "Let George Do It Clubs."

Soviets Accumulate Precious Booty; Recapture Vital Points

Moscow—Soviet troops on the Stalingrad front began to accumulate precious war booty today as the armies of Marshal Semyon Timoshenko smashed ever deeper into German defense lines and recaptured three vital points.

Two more important hills and one village northwest of the city fell back into Russian hands as the charging Soviets maintained the initiative. The Nazis were driven from additional streets and buildings in Stalingrad proper. But the heaviest fighting occurred before recapture of the village, into which Red troops finally drove with tanks and tommy-guns from the north and northwest.

(Editor's note: The British radio, according to CBS, reported that Stalingrad still is supplied with power and many factories still are operating despite tremendous damage suffered. The city still is administered by its local Soviet, which operates from a cellar.)

The Germans now are using their heaviest tanks in an effort to break Timoshenko's counter-offensive, but their attacks are being repelled everywhere with substantial losses.

SWINGING TO OFFENSE

As the Germans keep pounding away on the Stalingrad front, sacrificing thousands of men in the bloody effort to crack Russia, the people of the United Nations long for the time when they shall snatch the initiative from the Axis and move from defense to offense. Although a major second front has not been feasible, there are signs that the turning point has arrived.

Occupation of the Solomon Islands, repeated attacks on New Guinea bases and islands even farther afield, and increased pressure on enemy-held Aleutian bases—all these are indicative of the swelling tide of American might in the Pacific. Japan, which put everything in had into those first hundred days of the world, has so extended her lines that except for the fact that this nation is engrossed with the battle of Europe, she would be mortally vulnerable. And if she invades Siberia still another loophole in her armor will be opened.

In Europe, with the aid of American pilots and planes, a great offensive is already under way. The British have tightened their hold on Madagascar, relieving the threat of a Vichy sell-out to the Japs. In various sectors, such as Egypt, the striking power of the United Nations has been increased.

Yet these are merely straws in the wind. Until the day comes when Hitler can be dealt an all-out blow by a great expeditionary force attacking from the west or possibly the south, the Allies can only temporize with the enemy. But Russia is calling desperately for help and the Allied strategists are straining every nerve to make a major offensive possible.

When the blow is struck, it will be without advance notice. Perhaps the day is closer than most persons suspect. The military cannot appease its critics even with hints. But from the acceleration of operations it is permissible to surmise that things are brewing.

A dispatch from Montana asserts that the annual big game surplus in the western woods could feed 5,000,000 soldiers for two months without depleting the basic herd stock. What would the Berlin radio say if American soldiers should be reduced to eating venison?

Some Congressmen must have shuddered when they heard the rumor that the government is getting ready to ration pork.

If Japs persist in raids on the American continent, the dog faces they are trying to save will become fish bait.

Faith Clarke's SHOPPING TIPS FOR BUDGETEERS

THE CHINESE DISPLAY of artistic things is continued this week in the famous Snellenburg Auditorium. Folks are so appreciative for the privilege of seeing the 15-ft. solid silver Buddhist Temple of Good Luck, valued at a half million dollars, as well as meeting, also, the charming little woman who smuggled it out of Shanghai past the Japanese Army! The small admission price of 11c goes to the China Relief. Even to gaze upon the Temple is supposed to give one good luck! See also the 3,000 years of Chinese Art loaned by our own University Museum, and the world-famous Chang family's collection of jade. A "must" (3rd fl.).

ENGLISH "refugees," but not only for the Dufferin, are quaint pottery teapots that were actually escorted to our shores by the Allied Fleets! You have only to see them to love them. Their fat brown shapes have personality plus, and their bright enamels would cheer the most pessimistic soul. Each has marked on the bottom, by the potter "For U. S. A., Britain and Democracy!" Such are only little boys "inside", and how they do delight in an attractive box of candy that they can pass around! A particular favorite is at the Snellenburg Candy Counter, 1st fl. The clear, molded pili-film box contains 36 ozs. of Liberty Clear Crystals wrapped separately. The many different flavors come in different colors that gleam like jewels through the container. Only $1.19, and sent anywhere, free to our boys. Smaller packages, to meet shipping regulations, come at 49c for sending abroad.

CANDY CONSUMERS drink fewer cocktails! Service men are receiving literally tons of sweets, but tons more are needed. These men are only little boys "inside", and how they do delight in an attractive box of candy that they can pass around! A particular favorite is at the Snellenburg Candy Counter, 1st fl. The clear, molded pili-film box contains 36 ozs. of Liberty Clear Crystals wrapped separately. The many different flavors come in different colors that gleam like jewels through the container. Only $1.19, and sent anywhere, free to our boys. Smaller packages, to meet shipping regulations, come at 49c for sending abroad.

MATERNITY CAMOUFLAGE! Not that one shouldn't be proud of a blessed event, but one does like to look graceful for the "duration." This you can do with the help of Snellenburg's unusual Maternity Dept. on their second floor. See particularly the $7.95 group, and see especially the chic, young rayon crepe model with its "diverting peasant" embroidery. Comes in brown, green, blue black. Sizes 10 to 22. But up to a life!

BLESS HIS HEART! He'll be much less trouble if you train him with one of the Little Toidy chairs of the model that the Snellenburg infants' Dept. (2d fl.) is showing. With the chair goes a booklet, too, telling even the best mother excellent training things she ought to know. There are two kinds of these little toilet chairs that fit over the large toilet, with and without footrests. You can safely send one as a gift, sight unseen! Splendid!

NEW FOX OLD furniture can be had in a few minutes with the quick adjusting of the attractive, pretty "Fastex" slip-covers, now being shown in Snellenburg's famed Upholstery Dept., 4th fl. For only $9.95 you can cover a sofa and chair and their covers are for $6.95 you every girl who likes a back string can completely cover a studio couch and its cushions. "Fastex" wale is just right and the rich tones of the colors are most attractive. Covers are fitted and fit like the pattern on the wall. Pretty crotonne with wine, blue, or green at $1.39 to $2. Shop soon.

CORDUROY JUMPERS are tops with the school girls. Those in the Snellenburg Girls' Dept., 2nd fl., have a snapper than usual cut. They can be had in sizes 7 to 14, and can be worn by every girl who likes a back string at the waistline. The corduroy of the colors are most attractive. Only $3.95 each. Blackout Here Works With Perfection through Controller of the Bristol Area, Franklin Wallin and his staff, were holding a board meeting in the control room at the Bristol Municipal Building.

The windows of the blackout room have not as yet been blacked out so the controller and his men turned out the lights and sat in the dark until the all-clear.

The sector wardens and the emergency police chiefs all reported to the control center, after the all-clear, and stated that the blackout had been a success in all their districts.

The control room is being rapidly equipped for the service for which it is intended.

A large table occupies the center of the floor and around this sit the members of the controller's staff. A large bulletin board on the wall keeps them informed of what is happening in the various areas under their jurisdiction. There are three "in" telephones and three "out" phones designated for special services.

Around the large table sit the representatives of the public utilities, emergency police, fire corps, demolition corps, air raid wardens, Red Cross, medical corps and transportation corps. All others are barred from the room. Just outside sits a corps of messengers.

Mr. Wallin said that everything worked perfectly at the headquarters.

way received a cent of benefit from the illegal transactions.

"Sellers started 'covering up' for Anderson and the shortage increased rapidly and, I believe, he was afraid to inform me what was going on," Morlok testified.

Anderson would give a check for a certain amount to Sellers, but Anderson's balance would not be enough to cover the check, whereby Sellers would "cover up" the overdrafts from time to time in such a way that the discrepancy was not discovered until a year had passed.

In Sellers' statement read to the Court, the young bank clerk stated that he sometimes got cakes and meat at reduced prices from Anderson for the favors he was doing for him, and that Anderson one time gave him a shad.

When Anderson's checks came in overdraft, Sellers would make up the differences from other depositors' accounts.

William McKeown, State Bank Examiner, testified that Anderson's private check book showed "clever manipulation" of figures. The witness testified that Sellers and Anderson both co-operated with the banking department, after their arrests.

"By manipulation of credit checks, Sellers was able to 'carry on' until he was discovered, the bank examiner testified.

Sellers is represented by Charles Roberts, Jr., of Newtown, and Anderson by State Senator Howard I. James.

Sellers, a bridegroom of four months has been working with a farmer near Newtown since he left the bank. Sellers was born in Buckingham and graduated from Newtown High.

Sellers testified that Anderson came to him and asked him to carry over his overdrafts from day to day, and he did it just as a favor to Anderson, not telling his employer.

"I never received a cent from Anderson for what I did," Sellers testified.

"I was afraid to tell Morlok what was happening after the first overdraft, because I knew he would object to even doing it once," Sellers added.

"Anderson told me that he was trying to raise money to pay his debts, and that he had a chance to get some more money on a mortgage in Trenton," Sellers declared.

The witness testified that Anderson's account was looked upon as "not very satisfactory."

"I finally told Anderson that I expected to be called into the Army soon and he would have to do something about this jam I was in," Sellers said.

Anderson, who lives on Center St., Trenton, is married and has a family grown up. He has been in the meat business in Newtown since 1836.

Anderson said he paid about $3000 for his Newtown business, and it turned out to be unprofitable.

"From the start I went into debt," Anderson testified. "The money derived from my store was not enough to meet expenses and debts and the latter started to pile up."

"I went to Sellers and asked him to hold my over-drafts 'until the next day.' I did not know how Sellers was concealing the transactions and I did not know that Morlok was unaware of the method used."

"There was no money given to Sellers at any time for what he was doing for me."

Anderson testified that he does not drink nor gamble.

"It was not my intention at any time to beat anyone out of money," Anderson testified. "I want to pay back all this money to the bonding company and make good in every way."

"My store in Newtown, stock and fixtures have been sold by the Sheriff and I have nothing now."

Anderson, in answer to the District Attorney's question, said he didn't know the method Sellers was using but he knew that Sellers was concealing the scheme.

The defendant said he used the money to pay off his debts and his living expenses.

ican citizens before the war, has become far more acute since the war. The political alliance between the Administration and the labor leaders, instead of being weakened, apparently has been strengthened. In any event, it was openly proclaimed when the Attorney General some months ago, speaking before a small group of radicals, urged the necessity of fighting on the political front as well as the war front and described the New Deal as "a political party allied with labor."

LOUDLY proclaiming their patriotism all the while, these labor leaders have brazenly used the war to grab for money and power. Far from resisting, the Administration has acquiesced and approved. The wage increases have gone far beyond the rise in the cost of living and great strides toward the labor politicians' ideal of the closed shop have been made through Administration boards. For more than a year this sort of thing has been going on. Now, the stage has been reached when the President, having again declared that wages must be stabilized, is about to be given legislative authority (which, he says, he does not need) to stabilize them. And the labor leaders complacently accept the proposed stabilization, convinced that when the maneuverings are finally over, the result will be further advances in wages and further strengthening of the "maintenance-of-union" drive.

THE NET of all this is that at no time has either the legislative branch or the executive branch of the Government been able—or willing—to discipline or control these labor leaders. On the contrary, with intimate personal White House relations, they have steadily pushed ahead their program. Not only are they established as the favored class but apparently they are entrenched. So when Mr. Davis makes his charge that in prohibiting new transcriptions and recording by musicians for use over the radio, Mr. Petrillo is lowering the morale of the troops and impeding the war effort, he brought up no new question. It is, of course, a serious charge, but the only new thing about it is that this is the first time it has come from an Administration spokesman. Mr. Davis has shown courage in speaking frankly, and Senator Clark of Idaho, has done well in presenting a resolution for investigation, passage of which is now assured.

BUT whether corrective action will be had is doubtful. The stand Mr. Petrillo has taken is made possible by the strength which union leaders have acquired through Administration support and by decisions of Administration members of the Supreme Court. When a man like Mr. Davis makes as grave a charge as this, one would like to see him strongly supported by his White House Chief. Without that support, the chances are his charge will not get far, no corrective legislation will be enacted and Mr. Petrillo will have demonstrated that he is bigger than the Government. It is possible that public sentiment or private pressure may persuade him to make a generous gesture, but it seems unlikely, despite Mr. Thurman Arnold's legal offensive, that he is going to be forced. He may make a concession, but he is not likely to be, as he should be, slapped down and made to quit. It will be a shameful thing if, after the Davis charges and a Senate investigation, nothing happened of a disciplinary nature.

Patriotic Americans are paying special attention to their diet today. They're drinking more milk, because it offers many nutritional elements which aid working efficiency. And it also helps reduce the "war nerves" that come from today's tense, wartime living.

For milk contains several times as much calcium as any other common food—in readily assimilable form. This vital mineral regulates the irritability of tissue and relaxes muscles. Milk also has many other minerals and vitamins which promote vigorous health.

You may win a $25 War Savings Bond by finishing the sentence above, telling why you think milk-drinking is important.

One way to tempt your family to drink more milk is to order delicious Supplee Sealtest Homogenized Vitamin D Milk. Tastes better and is better for everyone. Order from your Supplee milkman, your neighborhood store, or phone Bristol 2117.

Model American Diets Feature Milk

To build health and citizen stamina, leading nutritionists have created simple, easy diets to be followed in every home. Notice particularly that milk is No. 1 on every one—at least a pint daily for every adult—a quart for each child. Milk can't do the whole job by any means, but it's No. 1 in any adequate diet.

*One pint of milk supplies an adult's daily requirements of the following food elements in approximately the proportions shown: Calcium, 7/19 of all required; Vitamin A, 1/5; Vitamin B1, 1/7; Vitamin B2, 2/5; Protein, 1/4; Niacin, 1/7; Iron, 1/12; Calories, 1/3.

Solebury Schools Lead In Art and Music

Through the teaching of safety in the schools in the county mortality of school children through accidents on the streets had been reduced 400 per cent.

Speaking of the working emergency permits, Mr. Boehm said 98 per cent of the school boards in the county have co-operated. Through this program, it was said, the boys receive actual working experience, and they have an opportunity of earning money. Mr. Boehm suggested for the girls a development of a first aid reserve in the home economics classes on a tenth grade level, and nurses' aids to be trained in case of an emergency. He announced also that in every high school in the county the pupils may take mathematics and science as applied to aviation.

The school said Mr. Boehm, is the community capital and is reserved not merely for grades one to 12, but for the use of any adult group affiliated with community affairs.

Briefly Mr. Boehm discussed the speech clinics in the county and the use of the radio and motion pictures in the schools. He concluded his talk by listing the objectives of the schools in the county when peace is brought home, and one of these, he said, will be an intensive health program.

Bristol Township School Board Agrees To Reopen Newportville School right to examine the qualifications of applicants.

Mr. Jackson, in telling that all pupils in Bristol Township are being cared for, reminded that there are at least 25 vacancies in teacher positions throughout the county, with one district operating with all substitute teachers. The board members told the committee further that no children are being turned away in the district, and that the board has had some big problems to meet which it has been doing to the best interest of all concerned.

Mr. Knight discussed thoroughly the manner in which the board had been led to believe by government representatives that funds would be forthcoming for a new building in the Bristol Terrace section, also for erection of an addition to the new junior high school building. He added how the high hopes of the board had been shattered when said representatives told the board it could care for all pupils by means of half sessions.

During the discussion of half sessions, has schedules, etc., Mr. Jackson promised the parents that all bus-riding children in his district will be dismissed in time to ride home on the about, and one of these, he said, will be an intensive health program.

men are now experiencing in the more modern buildings and classes.

Raymond Dewees, who attended the meeting, reminded the committee that some members of the Newportville P. T. A. had wanted Newportville school closed some time ago, because of the building being cold, as low as 43 degrees on some winter mornings; also because of sanitary conditions, etc. He cited the fact that that group of children now has modern rooms uniformly heated, inside toilets, janitor service, and transportation provided.

The committee members felt the closing of the school was a detriment to the community from the standpoint of property valuation, also stated they want the building kept open for the best interests of the children. Board members said they felt they were serving the best interests of the community in not signing any teachers unless they felt said teachers were properly qualified. "Once a teacher signs a contract she is under tenure, and the board then has little to say in the matter," the board further informed that more than one teacher is needed in the township to have Newportville school opened, the board having lost five. The janitor problem was also considered, there being no janitor at Newportville building in past years, and such services being difficult to secure, it being a full-time job at $20 per month.

When the board was queried regarding possibility of building an addition at Newportville school, thus caring for toilet problem, etc., the directors mentioned restrictions under the state building code, there not even being sufficient ground available to sanction such additions.

Get the iron out of your basement now!

Half of every tank, gun and ship is made from scrap iron and steel

Put your scrap out—to be picked up August
Watch for Junk Round-Up Announcement Ad—August

Unless the citizens of America respond at once, the war production program can bog down for lack of steel and other vital materials.

Even in peacetime, scrap provided about 50% of the raw material for steel.

It may be rusty, old "scrap" to you, but it is actually refined steel—with most impurities removed. In the steel mills this precious "scrap" is remelted with pig iron to produce the steel which goes into our machines of war.

Many steel furnaces are working from hand to mouth. Others are faced with shutting down. All need great mountains of reserve scrap to see them through the fall and winter months.

Steel production has gone up...up...UP! America is now producing as much steel as all the rest of the world combined. But unless at least 6,000,000 additional tons of scrap steel is uncovered promptly, the full rate of production cannot be attained or increased; all the tanks, guns and ships our country is counting on cannot be produced.

We can be thankful that there is enough Scrap in this country to see us through—Scrap once a wasteful nation is turning to in time of stress. It all depends on you to collect it and turn it in.

It is the greatest "Treasure Hunt" in history. Appoint yourself a committee of one to search your attic, your basement and your garage, your barnyard, your factory or your store.

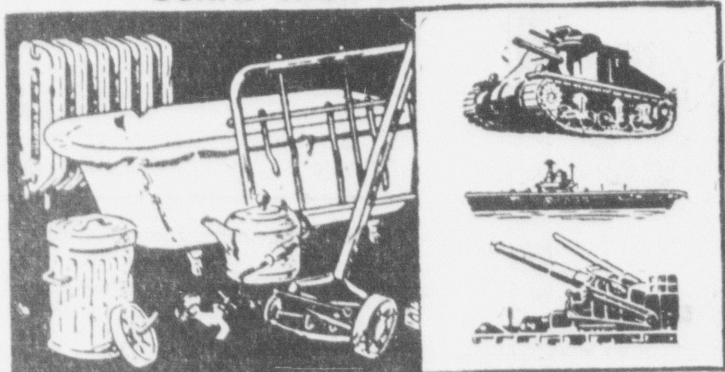

Then give your pile to a charity or collection agency—or sell it to a Junk dealer. The Junk which you collect is bought by industry from scrap dealers at established, government-controlled prices.

Throw YOUR scrap into the fight!

HOW TO TURN IT IN—Sell it to a Junk dealer... Give it to a charity... Take it yourself to nearest collection point... or consult your Local Salvage Committee... If you live on a farm phone or write your County War Board, or consult your farm implement dealer.

The picture opens in the jungle which is invaded by circus men, who fly there to trap animals. They capture Tarzan Junior and take him to America as a circus attraction. Tarzan and Jane follow. Tarzan reverts to jungle methods to attack the circus later creates an uproar in a court of law, and finally stages an escape from the police by diving off the Brooklyn Bridge, before he regains the youngster and they return to their jungle.

QUESTIONS and ANSWERS

Q. What are the different kinds of mortgages?

A. Straight, old style building and loan, and direct reduction.

Q. What are the differences between them?

A. A straight mortgage stands for the full amount until it is paid off in one lump sum. Most of them call for payment one year from date.

An old style building and loan mortgage is paid off when the value of the stock the borrower is required to carry reaches the amount of the mortgage. There is no certainty when that will take place.

A direct reduction mortgage is one on which the borrower makes monthly payments of principal and interest and he knows in advance exactly how long it will take.

Q. Is a direct reduction mortgage cheaper than the other two kinds?

A. Yes, generally very much cheaper.

Q. How is that?

A. Because interest is paid only on the monthly balances of principal which becomes less with each payment, and also because some old style building and loan mortgages call for the payment of a ten or fifteen cent premium on each $200 of the loan. A ten cent premium increases the interest rate from 6% to 6 6/10%, and a 15 cent premium from 6% to 6 9/10%.

Q. What should you do if you have a high cost, uncertain term mortgage?

A. Consult any director or officer of the

SPORTSMEN TO VIEW COLORED PICTURES AND HEAR LECTURE

Randolph Ashton, Well-Known
Ornithologist and Photographer, to Lecture Here

UNUSUAL MOVIES

Program Will Undoubtedly Attract A Large Audience
On Tuesday Night

An hour and a half of unsurpassed entertainment on a subject of vital interest to every sportsman in Bucks County is promised when the Bristol Fish & Game Protective Association holds its September meeting in the Odd Fellows Hall, Radcliffe and Walnut streets, Tuesday evening, at 7:30 o'clock.

Randolph Ashton, well-known ornithologist and photographer, will provide this hour and a half of entertainment when he lectures and shows colored moving pictures on the subject, "Wildlife in Color and Action."

Highlighting the subject to be portrayed by Ashton will be action pictures of game birds, including pheasants, ducks and geese; fishing pictures; pictures of mountain scenery in all their natural scenic beauty; and also pictures of beaver and deer.

All the pictures to be shown were taken by Mr. Ashton without the aid of baiting or other artificial methods. His trips for this group of outstanding studies in wildlife have taken the speaker through all the eastern states, from Virginia to Vermont.

Thus, for the first time in the memory of even the "old timers" of the Association, a man has been found who can bring members unusual color movies of wild ducks, and also give valuable and enlightening descriptions of the different types of ducks, the distinctive markings of each species and positive ways to identify different species of both ducks and geese.

Coming just a few days before the opening of duck season in Pennsylvania the program will be doubly attractive to those sportsmen who hunt ducks, especially since Federal legislation in the last few years has made it necessary for the hunter to know his duck species.

Ashton, now a resident of Morrisville, and formerly a resident of Bristol, is very active in the Delaware Valley Ornithological Club and the American Ornithologists' Union. He has lectured at many clubs throughout the country, including the Academy of Natural Sciences in Philadelphia and the Natural Museum of New Jersey, at Trenton. He was secured for the meeting next Tuesday evening after considerable effort on the part of Association officials, who have asserted that "this meeting will climax anything ever before attempted by the Bristol Fish & Game Protective Association."

In view of the potential value and entertainment of these pictures to sportsmen, the meeting has been declared open, and all sportsmen who wish to attend, whether or not they are members of the Association, are cordially invited to be present next Tuesday evening. A special invitation is also extended to men in the uniforms of the armed services of the United States.

COMMUNICATION

Editor Courier:
May I please indulge on your time for a moment.

Thought you might be interested to know that a couple of months ago we ran a classified ad and the same night the issue came out, there were two calls at my home and in all we had 15 inquiries on the item. I am getting ready to sell something else and will be ready in a day or two. I thought that was a remarkable response, revealing a reading circulation.

I thank you.

Rotarians Pledge To Aid Scrap Drive

sors want only those things from your homes that no longer are of any use to the household.

"The steel mills need the scrap badly. They are buying only from junk dealers at prices regulated by Government orders. The amount of scrap that junk dealers can have on hand is also regulated by Government orders."

Fretz praised the work of the chairman of the lower section of Bucks County, Gordon H. Fromm. He asked all residents of Bristol and the lower end of the county to co-operate in the program laid out by Mr. Fromm and his co-workers.

In conclusion Fretz said, "remember, we have always sent scrap to Japan . . . don't stop now . . . the only difference is in the way it will be sent from now on!"

Fretz was introduced to the Rotarians by Gordon Fromm who also introduced Robert Meyer, a member of the Fleetwings publicity staff, who passed out pledges to members. Every member pledged to bring at least 100 pounds of scrap metal to the next meeting of the club.

Following the meeting Edward Pilkington, staff photographer at Fleetwings, took pictures of club members watching their president George Ardrey as he signed the pledge to bring in metal for the scrap drive.

The farewell party was for Lt. William J. Begley, formerly assistant (rust officer at the Bristol Trust Co., who leaves today for the middle West where he will report for duty with the U. S. Naval Reserve.

President George Ardrey called upon member Ernest Gamble to make the presentation of a sterling silver identification bracelet to Lt. Begley. In his remarks Mr. Gamble said, "we are proud of our boys in the service, but we regret to lose their comradeship and fellowship."
